News from the Illinois Department of Veterans Affairs ★ Volume 6, Issue 1 ★ January 2026

★ Message from IDVA Director Terry Prince

As we move into the New Year, I want to take a moment to thank you for keeping in touch with IDVA. Whether you are a veteran, family member, staff member, or interested reader, you play a major role in our fellow veterans' lives. This is always a great time to reflect on where we've been, check in on our progress, and recommit ourselves to the veterans we serve every day.

This past year brought incredible opportunities, challenges, and progress for the veterans of Illinois. Through it all, our focus as an Agency remained clear: Helping veterans and their families thrive in Illinois with the care, respect, and support they have earned. I am extremely grateful to our staff for their professionalism and compassion, to our partners for their collaboration, and to our veterans and families for their trust.

In this issue, you will read about the Veterans' Home at Chicago celebrating its fourth anniversary and the opening of its Specialty Care unit, a floor dedicated to providing skilled, long-term care to veterans with memory loss. We also paid a visit to the Manteno Home to congratulate the adjutant and food service manager for their great work in dazzling our veteran residents with new food options. They also opened the Pentagon Café, offering a diner-style service in a welcoming place, to socialize and build community.

We also welcomed new members to our ever-growing lineup of Veteran Service Officers and administrative support team while bidding "Fair Winds and Following Seas" to Chuck Bosko, who served as our appeals representative for over 12 years. Chuck is a U.S. Army Veteran who served in the Vietnam War, and I can't think of anyone better to have represented countless veterans at their VA appeal hearings.

As I write this, we are celebrating the work of our activities teams during Activity Professionals Week. These unsung heroes provide many of the behind-the-scenes events that help our veterans thrive. In our homes, they are hosting concerts, art events, and of course, Bingo! Want to see how you can help? Consider volunteering. We have an incredible group of volunteers. Come on out and join us.

The IDVA Women Veterans Program is excited about the upcoming 2026 class of Women Veteran Leaders. This is the second year of our program that recognizes women veterans who are making a difference in their communities. If you haven't already nominated someone, you have until Feb 1 to do so.

Looking ahead, 2026 will be a year of strengthening services, supporting our employees, and planning for the future needs of veterans. We will continue to focus on the veteran experience, quality of care, operational excellence, and advocacy for the resources necessary to meet a growing demand for services. Your feedback and engagement will remain essential as we move forward together.

Sincerely,

Terry Prince, Director and U.S. Navy Veteran

Veterans' Home at Chicago Opens Specialty Care Unit

The Veterans' Home at Chicago celebrated its fourth anniversary by opening its Specialty Care Unit for veterans seeking memory care. The unit accommodates 44 residents and will be full by the end of February. To celebrate, veterans and their families enjoyed a speaking program, ribbon cutting, and refreshments. The Home welcomed its first residents on January 20th, 2022, and since then has cared for over 150 residents. It is now home to 101 veterans with plans to fill it to capacity with 200 residents.

"For four years, the Chicago team has been diligent in caring for veterans in a Home that facilitates extraordinary care in a dignified and comfortable setting," said IDVA Director Terry Prince. "The opening of the Specialty Care Unit exemplifies IDVA's commitment to continuing to expand the Home and provide another level of care for Illinois veterans."

The Home, located on Chicago's northwest side, is the first Veterans' Home in Cook County, and the fifth in the State. With 56% of Illinois veterans residing in Cook County, the location was selected to bring veterans closer to their families and network. The $121 million project is part of Governor JB Pritzker's Rebuild Illinois.

The Home offers 200-private rooms for veterans requiring skilled residential or specialty care, delivered by a team of medical professionals and staff, who are committed to the highest level of compassionate care. The state-of-the-art facility is designed around pods of living and dining areas, which creates community and camaraderie. Residents have access to a garden, terrace, library, barber shop, bank, and a physical rehabilitation center. Local artist Indira Johnson created custom, interactive artwork for every floor, themed "Helping Hands," to reflect the commitment of the IDVA staff who are caring for their resident. Additionally, an IDVA Veteran Service Officer is available to assist veterans with questions regarding state and federal benefits.

The Home is licensed to operate by the Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH) and certified by the United States Department of Veterans' Affairs (USDVA).

IDVA Director Prince, United States Air Force Veteran and President of the Homes' Residential Council Thomas Souter, and Home Administrator Jennifer Malone cut the ceremonial ribbon opening the Specialty Care Unit.

US Air Force Veteran and President of the Resident Council Thomas Souter delivers remarks regarding his positive experience with the Home's care and calling the Veterans' Home at Chicago, "home." He is accompanied by Home Administrator Jennifer Malone.

IDVA Director Terry Prince congratulates Home Administrator Jennifer Malone on the opening of the Specialty Care Unit. He thanked her for her dedication to ensure veterans receive the highest level of care in a welcoming community.

St. Ignatius College Preparatory Students Volunteer at the Veterans' Home at Chicago

Senior Students from Chicago's St. Ignatius College Prep volunteered at the Veterans' Home at Chicago as part of its Capstone program. Capstone, in its inaugural year, allows seniors to spend the first three weeks of the second semester of their senior year volunteering at selected sites. The students engaged with veterans playing games, giving manicures, sharing stories, and enjoying meals. At the Fourth Anniversary celebration and opening of the Specialty Care Unit, the seniors acted as greeters and served veterans snacks and drinks at the reception following the program.

"The students brought energy and smiles to our veterans," said Administrator Jennifer Malone. "They built relationships, brightened the veterans' days, and were invaluable to our staff."

Students cheer on U.S. Navy and Air Force veteran John Galbreath (Jack).

Veteran Service Office Brandon Jagers and World War II U.S. Army veteran and Purple Heart recipient Joseph Pensa.

Success Story: Field Services

On Tuesdays and every other Thursday, Veteran Service Officer Brandon Jagers sets up shop at the Evanston Vet Center, where he meets with veterans to discuss their earned benefits and services. In July 2025, Brandon met World War II U.S. Army Veteran and Purple Heart recipient Joseph Pensa. Joseph served in the Battle of Magdeburg in Germany and was wounded by shrapnel from from a tank explosion. When Brandon informed Joseph and his niece Doreen Jamison that he was entitled to benefits, he immediately filed Joseph's first military-service-connected disability claim, yielding a 100 percent service-connected rating.

The day after meeting Joseph and filing his claim, Brandon invited Joseph and Doreen to view the Veterans' Home at Chicago, which is Brandon's home base. He assisted Joseph with the Home's application process. Joseph now calls the Veterans' Home at Chicago Home, at no cost to him and his family.

Metro Region Supervisor Robert Iverson III, Field Services Manager Mark Patterson, and IDVA Director Terry Prince congratulate Claims Management Center Veteran Service Officer Charles Bosko for his retirement after 12 years of representing veterans in appeal hearings.

Activity Professionals bring the fun! IDVA's five Veterans' Homes in Anna, Chicago, LaSalle, Manteno, and Quincy offer their creativity, energy, and enthusiasm to enrich the lives of veterans in our care. The activities are endless, from game watches to crafts to spa days. Each day, veterans may participate in an event or activity that engages them with the community and keeps them active. It brings them joy and purpose. Activities professionals are central to IDVA's holistic approach to the overall well-being of its veterans. It is our privilege to be able to help our veterans receive the benefits they have earned through service to our nation. Our goal is to empower our veterans and their families to thrive in all aspects of their lives.
